CHAPTER 6-01. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6-01-01. Definitions. Where a term is used in this chapter, the meaning of that term as defined in Title 12.1, N.D.C.C., if that term is so defined, is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

6-01-02. Conflict with State Law. No offense defined in this chapter shall be construed to supersede any offense defined in Title 12.1, N.D.C.C., or elsewhere in state law. In the event any section of this chapter is in conflict with or contrary to any offense defined in Title 12.1 or elsewhere in state law, as those statutes maybe amended from time to time, the language in conflict with or contrary to state law shall be invalid and the offense containing such language shall be construed to be consistent with the definition of that offense set forth in state law.

6-01-03. Liability and Culpability. The provisions of Chapter 12.1, N.D.C.C., dealing with liability and culpability, as that chapter may be amended from time to time, are hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

6-01-04. Accomplices - Corporations - Agents. The provisions of Chapter 12.1-03, N.D.C.C., dealing with accomplices, corporations and agents, as that chapter may be amended from time to time, are hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

6-01-05. Juveniles - Intoxication - Mental Disease. The provisions of Chapter 12.1-04, N.D.C.C., dealing with juveniles, intoxication and mental disease, as that chapter may be amended from time to time, are hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

6-01-06. Justification - Excuse - Affirmative Defenses. The provisions of Chapter 12.1-05, N.D.C.C., dealing with justification, excuse and affirmative defenses, as that chapter may be amended from time to time, are hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

CHAPTER 6-02. GENERAL OFFENSES

6-02-01. Criminal Attempt.

1. A person is guilty of criminal attempt if, acting with the kind of culpability otherwise required for commission of an offense, that person intentionally engages in conduct which, in fact, constitutes a substantial step toward commission of the offense. A "substantial step" is any conduct which is strongly corroborative of the firmness of the actor's intent to complete the commission of the offense. Factual or legal impossibility of committing the offense is not a defense, if it could have been committed had the attendant circumstances been as the actor believed them to be.

2. A person who engages in conduct intending to aid another to commit an offense is guilty of criminal attempt if the conduct would establish that person's complicity as an accomplice under NDCC Section 12.1-03-01 were the offense committed by the other person, even if the other is not guilty of committing or attempting the offense, for example, because the other has a defense of justification or entrapment.

3. Criminal attempt is an offense of the same class as the offense attempted.

4. Anything which constitutes an affirmative defense to prosecution under NDCC Sec. 12.1-06-01 is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-06-01 (1985)

6-02-02. Aiding Consummation of Crime. A person is guilty of aiding consummation of an offense against the ordinances of this city if that person intentionally aids another to secrete, disguise, or convert the proceeds of the offense against the ordinances of this city or otherwise profits from the offense.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-08-04 (1985)

6-02-03. Public Servants Permitting Escape. A public servant concerned in official detention, as defined in NDCC Sec. 12.1-08-06(3), pursuant to process issued by a court, judge, or magistrate is guilty of an offense against the ordinances of this city if the public servant negligently permits an escape.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-08-07 (1985)

6-02-04. Criminal Contempt.

1. The municipal court has power to punish for contempt of its authority only for the following offenses:

a. Misbehavior of any person in its presence or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice;

b. Misbehavior of any of its officers in their official transactions.

c. Disobedience or resistance to its lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree or command.

2. Except as otherwise provided, a criminal contempt proceeding under this section is deemed a prosecution for an offense for the purposes of NDCC Chapters 12.1-01 through 12.1-05, NDCC Chapter 12.1-32, and the provisions of this chapter.

3. A criminal contempt proceeding under this section is not a bar to subsequent prosecution for a specific offense if the court certifies in the judgment of conviction of criminal contempt, or the order terminating the proceeding without acquittal or dismissal, that a summary criminal contempt proceeding was necessary to prevent repetition of misbehavior disruptive of an ongoing proceeding and that subsequent prosecution as a specific offense is warranted. In a subsequent prosecution, the defendant shall receive credit for all time spent in custody and any fine paid pursuant to the criminal proceeding.

4. This section shall not be construed to deprive a court of its power, by civil contempt proceedings, to compel compliance with its lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command or to compensate a complainant for losses sustained by reason of disobedience or resistance thereto. Disobedience or resistance to its lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree or command shall be dealt with according to N.D.C.C. Sec. 40-18-14.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-10-01 (1985)

6-02-05. Impersonating City Officials.

1. A person is guilty of an offense if that person falsely pretends to be a public servant and acts as if to exercise the authority of that public servant.

2. It is no defense to prosecution under this section that the pretended capacity did not exist or the pretended authority could not legally or otherwise have been exercised or conferred. If the offender "obtains a thing of value" as a result of the pretension or falsely pretends to be a law enforcement officer, the offender is guilty of the greater offense prohibited by NDCC Section 12.1-13-04(1)(b), which is not subject to the jurisdiction of the municipal court.

6-02-06. Discrimination in Public Places. A person is guilty of an offense if, whether or not acting under color of law, that person, by force, or threat of force or by economic coercion, intentionally:

1. Injures, intimidates, or interferes with another because of the other's sex, race, color, religion, or national origin and because the other person is or has been exercising or attempting to exercise the right to full and equal enjoyment of any facility open to the public.

2. Injures, intimidates, or interferes with another because of the other's sex, race, color, religion, or national origin in order to intimidate that person or any other person from exercising or attempting to exercise the right to full and equal enjoyment of any facility open to the public.

6-02-07. Preventing Exercise of Civil Rights. A person is guilty of an offense if, whether or not acting under color of law, that person, by force or threat of force or by economic coercion, intentionally:

1. Injures, intimidates or interferes with another because the other person is about to exercise his or her civil rights, or because the other person has exercised his or her civil rights.

2. Intimidates or prevents another from aiding a third person to exercise his or her civil rights.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-14-05 (1985)

6-02-08. False Report to Law Enforcement Officers. A person is guilty of an offense if that person knowingly gives false information to a law enforcement officer with intent to falsely cause an official investigation to begin or to affect the course or outcome of an official investigation or the disposition of the matter or investigation for which given.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1 11-03 (1985)

6-02-09. Fleeing from Officer. It is unlawful for any person who has been apprehended by a police officer to leave the presence of the officer in such a manner as to cause the officer to pursue such person, or for any person being pursued by a police officer for the purpose of apprehension to fail to stop at the command or direction of the officer.

a. That person knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the contact is offensive to the other person;

b. That person knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the other person suffers from a mental disease or defect which renders him or her incapable of understanding the nature of his or her conduct;

c. That person or someone with his or her knowledge has substantially impaired the other person's power to appraise or control his or her conduct, by administering or employing without the other's knowledge, intoxicants or other means for the purpose of preventing resistance;

d. The other person is in official custody or detained in a hospital, prison, or other institution and the actor has supervisory or disciplinary authority over that person.

2. As used in this section, "sexual contact" means sexual contact as that term is defined at Section 12.1-20-02, N.D.C.C.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-20-07 (1985)

6-03-03. Harassment. A person is guilty of an offense if, with intent to frighten or harass another, that person:

1. Makes a telephone call anonymously, or using offensively course language or, using other electronic communication, communicates offensive material with no purpose of legitimate communication;

2. Makes repeated telephone calls, or other electronic communication, whether or not conversation ensues, with no purpose of legitimate communication; or

3. Communicates a falsehood by telephone or by electronic communication and causes mental anguish.

(Ord. 5032, 03-14-00; Ord. 6225, 08-09-16)*

6-03-04. Consent as a Defense.

1. When conduct is an offense because it threatens or causes bodily injury, consent to the conduct causing bodily injury by all persons injured by the conduct is a defense if:

a. Neither the injury inflicted nor the injury threatened is such as to jeopardize life or seriously impair health;

b. The conduct and the injury are reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participation in a lawful athletic contest of competitive sport; or

c. The conduct and the injury are reasonably foreseeable hazards of an occupation or profession or of medical or scientific experimentation conducted by recognized methods and the persons subjected to such conduct or injury, having been made aware of the risks involved, consent to the performance of the conduct or the infliction of the injury.

2. Assent does not constitute consent, within the meaning of this ordinance, if:

a. It is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct charged to constitute the offense and such incompetence is manifest or known to the actor;

b. It is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental disease or defect, or intoxication, is manifestly unable or known by the actor to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature or harmfulness of the conduct charged to constitute the offense; or

2. Willfully damages tangible property of another.

Conduct is punishable as criminal mischief under this ordinance when any pecuniary loss if intentionally caused is not in excess of one hundred dollars; if recklessly caused is not in excess of two thousand dollars; and if other damages to tangible property of another are not caused by means of an explosive or a destructive device.

The penalty for the offense of criminal mischief may not exceed a fine of one thousand dollars, imprisonment for thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-21-05 (1985)

6-04-02. Tampering With or Damaging a Public Service. A person is guilty of an offense if that person negligently causes a substantial interruption or impairment of a public communication, transportation, supply of water, gas, power, or other public service by:

1. Tampering with or damaging the tangible property of another;

2. Incapacitating an operator of such service; or

3. Negligently damaging the tangible property of another by fire, explosive or other dangerous means.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-21-06 (1985)

1. Whenever it is an element of the offense that the property is of another, it is a defense to a prosecution under those sections that the other has consented to the actor's conduct with respect to the property.

2. Property is that "of another" if anyone other than the actor has a possessory or proprietary interest therein.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-21-07, 08(2) (1985)

6-04-04. Criminal Trespass.

The name of the person posting the premises must appear on each sign in legible characters.

2. 3. A person is guilty of an offense if that person remains upon the property of another after being requested to leave the property by a duly authorized person.

4. For a zoo, circus, exhibit, livestock yard or other facility that keeps animals, a person is guilty of an infraction if that person, without the permission of the keeper of the animal(s), willfully enters or remains within any cage, enclosure, corral, habitat, demarcated buffer zone, or other area that is delineated by a fence, wall or other divider that is intended to separate an animal(s) from the general public.

(Ord. 6103, 02-24-15)

6-04-05. Consolidated Theft Offenses.

1. Conduct denominated theft in Sections 6-04-06 to 6-04-08 constitutes a single offense designed to include the separate offenses heretofore known as larceny, stealing, purloining, embezzlement, obtaining money or property by false pretenses, extortion, blackmail, fraudulent conversion, receiving stolen money, misappropriation of public funds, swindling, and the like.

2. A charge of theft under Sections 6-04-06 to 6-04-08 which fairly apprises the defendant of the nature of the charges against him or her shall not be deemed insufficient because it fails to specify a particular category of theft. The defendant may be found guilty of theft under such a charge if his or her conduct falls under Sections 6-04-06 to 6-04-08, so long as the conduct proved is sufficiently related to the conduct charged that the accused is not unfairly surprised by the case the defendant must meet.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-23-01 (1985)

1. Retains or disposes of property of another when he or she knows it has been lost or mislaid; or

2. Retains or disposes of property of another when he or she knows it has been delivered under a mistake as to the identity of the recipient or as to the nature or amount of the property; and with intent to deprive the owner of it, he or she fails to take readily available and reasonable measures to restore the property to a person entitled to have it.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-23-04 (1985)

6-04-08. Theft of Services. A person is guilty of theft if:

1. That person intentionally obtains services, known by him or her to be available only for compensation, by deception, threat, false token, or other means to avoid payment for the services; or

2. Having control over the disposition of services of another to which he or she is not entitled, he or she knowingly diverts those services to his or her own benefit or to the benefit of another not entitled thereto.

Where compensation for services is ordinarily paid immediately upon their rendition, as in the case of hotels, restaurants, and comparable establishments, absconding without payment or making provision to pay is prima facie evidence that the services were obtained by deception.

Reference: NDCC Sec. 12.1-23-03 (1985)

6-04-09. Punishable Theft. Theft under Sections 6-04-06 to 6-04-08 may be punishable as an offense against the city ordinances if the highest value by any reasonable standard, regardless of the actor's knowledge of such value, of the property or services which were stolen by the actor, or which the actor believed that he or she was stealing, or which the actor could reasonably have anticipated to have been the property or services involved, does not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars and if:

1. The theft was not committed by threat;
2. The theft was not committed by deception by one who stood in a confidential or fiduciary relationship to the victim of the theft; and
3. The defendant was not a public servant or an officer or employee of a financial institution who committed the theft in the course of his or her official duties;
4. The property stolen is not a firearm, ammunition, explosive or destructive device, or an automobile, aircraft, or other motor-propelled vehicle;
5. The property does not consist of any government file, record, document, or other government paper stolen from any government office or from any public servant;
6. The defendant is not An the business of buying or selling stolen property and he or she does not receive, retain, or dispose of the property in the course of that business;
7. The property does not consist of any implement, paper, or other thing uniquely associated with the preparation of any money, stamp, bond, or other document, instrument, or obligation of the State of North Dakota.

8. The property stolen does not consist of livestock taken from the premises of the owner; and

9. The property stolen does not consist of a key or other implement uniquely suited to provide access to property the theft of which would be a felony and it was stolen to gain such access.

Any person who conceals upon his person or among his belongings, or causes to be concealed upon the person or among the belongings of another, unpurchased merchandise displayed, held, offered, or stored for sale in a retail mercantile establishment and who removes it to a point beyond the last station for receiving payments in that retail mercantile establishment shall be prima facie presumed to have so concealed such merchandise with the intention of permanently depriving the merchant of possession or of the full retail value of such merchandise.

2. Where a term is used in this section, the meaning of that term as defined in Chapter 51-21 of the NDCC, as that chapter may be amended from time to time, is hereby adopted by reference and incorporated herein.

3. Any person reasonably believed to have committed or in the process of committing a theft covered by this section may be detained as set forth in section 51-21-03 of the NDCC. That section as it may be amended is adopted and incorporated by reference herein.

This section does not apply to constitutionally protected activity. If an individual claims to have been engaged in a constitutionally protected activity, the court shall determine the validity of the claim as a matter of law and, if found valid, shall exclude evidence of the activity.
